

---

For each pair of statements below, please circle the member of the pair that most closely agrees with your belief.

- 1.A To be born again (regenerated), one must first have faith.
- 1.B To have faith, one must first be born again (regenerated).

- 2.A God chose for salvation those whom He was pleased to choose.
- 2.B God chose for salvation those whose eventual faith He foresaw.

- 3.A Every person is able to accept or reject Christ.
- 3.B Without God's direct intervention, every person would certainly reject Christ.

- 4.A On the cross, Jesus bore the sins of His people alone.
- 4.B On the cross, Jesus bore the sins of everyone, including those who reject Him.

- 5.A Unless a man's will is free, he cannot justly be held responsible for his actions.
- 5.B God justly determines the conditions for holding a man responsible for his actions.

- 6.A Sinning stops at death for everyone.
- 6.B Sinning stops at death only for God's people; souls in hell continue to sin.

- 7.A Everyone deserves an opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel.
- 7.B No one deserves an opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel.

---

For each pair of statements below, please circle the member of the pair that most closely agrees with your belief.

- 1.A To be born again (regenerated), one must first have faith.
  - 1.B To have faith, one must first be born again (regenerated).

  - 2.A God chose for salvation those whom He was pleased to choose.
  - 2.B God chose for salvation those whose eventual faith He foresaw.

  - 3.A Every person is able to accept or reject Christ.
  - 3.B Without God's direct intervention, every person would certainly reject Christ.

  - 4.A On the cross, Jesus bore the sins of His people alone.
  - 4.B On the cross, Jesus bore the sins of everyone, including those who reject Him.

  - 5.A Unless a man's will is free, he cannot justly be held responsible for his actions.
  - 5.B God justly determines the conditions for holding a man responsible for his actions.

  - 6.A Sinning stops at death for everyone.
  - 6.B Sinning stops at death only for God's people; souls in hell continue to sin.

  - 7.A Everyone deserves an opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel.
  - 7.B No one deserves an opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel.
-