

Freedom of the Will:
What Do You Mean by That?

Part I. Wherein Are Explained Various Terms and Things Belonging to the Subject of the Ensuing Discourse
15 June 2003

<http://www.logicteacher.com/fotw/>

1. Review of last week

2. Terms and phrases discussed by Edwards in Part I include the following: the will, determining the will, motive, good, indifferent, state of the mind, the understanding, necessary, impossible, contingent, necessity (of the philosophical, natural, and moral kinds), inability (of the natural and moral kinds), freedom (or liberty), moral agency, indifference, self-determining power, and circumstantial difference

3. What do we mean by ...
 - a. the will
 - i. definition: the mind _____
 - ii. discussion:

 - b. determining the will
 - i. The will is determined by the _____ that is _____ to the mind
 - ii. discussion:

 - c. freedom (or liberty)
 - i. definition: opportunity to _____ what you _____
 - ii. discussion:

Assignments: (1) Read Part II, Sections 1-7; (2) Read Romans 8-11