

Freedom of the Will:
Yes, But ... It Doesn't Make Sense

Part IV. Wherein the chief Grounds of the Reasonings of Arminians, in Support and defense of Their Notions of Liberty, Moral Agency, etc. and against the Opposite Doctrine, Are Considered — Overview & Sections 1- 4
3 August 2003
<http://www.logicteacher.com/fotw/>

1. Review of previous 7 weeks

2. Arminians think that _____ is _____ to believe on Christ, although _____ to _____.

3. Ten arguments given by Arminians to support this view of the freedom of the will.
 - a. Virtue and vice ...

 - b. Without self-determination ...

 - c. Calvinist doctrine is ...

 - d. Without the Arminian notion ...

 - e. Calvinism is ...

 - f. The Calvinist notion of freedom ...

 - g. Calvinism makes God ...

 - h. Calvinism casts doubts ...

 - i. Calvinism encourages ...

 - j. The arguments for Calvinism are too ...

4. Edwards refutation of the first 3 of these arguments

Assignments: (1) Read Part IV, Sections 5-8; (2) Read Romans 8-11; (3) ask 5 people to define “free will”