

Freedom of the Will:
Implications & Speculations

Conclusion

24 August 2003

<http://www.logicteacher.com/fotw/>

1. Review of previous 10 weeks

2. From Edwards' conclusion
 - a. Many will treat these arguments with contempt

 - b. The issue of the freedom of the will lies at the root of the disagreements between Arminians and Calvinists

3. 'Free will' today
 - a. Holloway hypotheses
 - i. Edwards' definition of freedom _____ many people's stated definitions today.

 - ii. When people talk in terms of unrestricted _____, they are assuming they already have unrestricted _____.

 - b. Talking with people about the subject
 - i. '... special prudence and care ...'

 - ii. Humility

 - iii. Questions rather than statements

 - iv. Romans